Dear Mrs. Manley,

I recieved your letter and was very glad to hear from you. I am fine and hope that you and Mr. Mr. Manley are the same. The boy that you wrote left for Texas last Sunday. The letter that you wrote him read, so he said, that you did'nt want him, but the two boys that I really want you to have are still here. Write me as quick as possible please and put something in the letter concerning them because I am going to let them read it. Lincoln Boyd is about 6'1" and weighs about 168 lbs. and bats from the right. Amos Watson is about 5'7" and weighs about 160 lbs. and is a right hander. Lincoln plays infield and Watson is a pitcher. Both are good men and I know that you can use them.

About myself, I feel better but I have'nt worked out as yet. Before I come to spring training there are some things I've got to get and it takes about thirty dollars and I'm ready to report whenever you get ready.

The kid is getting along fine. He is talking now.

Yours very truly,

James Hill
